TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

REPORTING TIME

- Passenger(s) should report at the check-in counter at least 3:00 hours prior to international flight departure and 1:30 hours prior to domestic flight departure.
- Check-in counters will be closed 1:30 hours (for international flights) and 30 minutes (for domestic flights) prior to flight departure.
- All passengers will be required to show their documents at the time of Check-In.
- All times shown in ticket are local time.
- Wheelchair facility is subject to availability which may be subject to a charge as applied by local UAE/Kuwait handling company on (arrival/departure) flights.

BAGGAGE CLAIM (DAMAGED/ MISSING)

- In case of damage to checked-in baggage, passenger must file with our staff the DBR (Damaged Baggage Report) immediately and in any event within 21 days from the date of damage, together with the "Baggage Inventory & Claim Form (BICF)"
- In case of loss of checked-in baggage, passenger must file with our staff a PIR (Property Irregularity Report) immediately and in any event within 21 days from the date on which the baggage should have been received by the passenger. The PIR is merely an intimation to SAI to search the missing baggage. In case baggage is not found within 21 days, the Passenger MUST file a "Baggage Claim Form - Revised" within 15 days (i.e. 36 days from the date on which the Baggage ought to have arrived), providing details of the items in the baggage along with the date of purchase, price and receipt. In case Baggage Claim Form is not submitted as stated herein and in SAI Conditions of Carriage, all claims against SAI shall have lapsed and become inadmissible
- Production of baggage identification tag is essential for the claim
- SAI assumes no liability for valuable items in the checked and unchecked baggage of the passenger.

TICKET REFUNDS AND MODIFICATIONS

- Refund will be processed at the place of issuance of ticket on production of the original ticket with the necessary endorsement of SAI.
- All known taxes are collected at the time of reservation; however there may be some taxes which can be collected at Airport on departure.
- Original passport and/or CNIC with photocopy required for refund.
- Prior to ticket expiration, tickets may be changed or refunded with the following applicable charges:
- For ticket changes, passengers pay the change fee PLUS the difference in the fare. Same fare is not guaranteed.
